From: Melissa Burt mburt@atmos.colostate.edu
Subject: 2014 teachers
Date: July 7, 2014 at 4:30 PM
To: Scott (EID) Denning scott.denning@colostate.edu

Course 3:

First Name	Middle Name	Last Name	Maiden Name	School	Years taught	Email	Phone	Address	Grades	Subjects	Grad	Training	Diet	Hear about class	Why take class
Karen		Helfrich		Bill Reed Middle School	24	karen.helfrich@thompsonschools.org	(970) 613-7255	370 West 4th Street	6	Physical Education, Health, Earth Science				took a class two years ago - on mailing list	I still feel lik I have much to learn abo weather and climate.
Leslie	A	Johnson		Lucile Erwin Middle School	1	colorado_leslie@yahoo.com	(970) 420-9901	3916 Highlands West Drive	6-8	life, earth and physical science				flyer in staff lounge	I want to have a bett base knowledge f teaching thi
Jennifer		Marlow		Windsor High School	17	jenw.marlow@gmail.com	(405) 747-9736	7502 Matheson Drive	9-12	Currently teaching Earth and Space Sciences and General Biology.	MS in Library and Information Sciences			forwarded to me by a collegue	Improve my content understandi of climate change.
Laura		Marts		Nederland Middle Sr	20+	laura.marts@bvsd.org	(303) 258-7772	1856 Ridge Rd Nederland, CO 80466	6-12	Earth Science Chemistry Physical Science	MA Geosciences			email from district science coordinator	interested, credit
Joslyn		Pearse		Broomfield Heights Middle School	4	joslyn.pearse@bvsd.org	(720) 233-7370	8033 Countryside Park #209 Niwot, CO 80503	7th & 8th grade science	Life Science & Earth Science	MA in science curriculum and intruction		gluten and lactose intolerant	Email from Boulder Valley School District's Science Chair, Samantha Messier.	I want to ta this course increase my weather and climate content knowledge and to furth develop my instructiona practices in teaching these topics
Katie		Zenisek		Wellington Middle School	12	kzenisek@comcast.net	(970) 631-4941	836 Bitterbrush Lane Fort Collins, CO 80526	6	6th grade science	Master's in Curriculum and Instruction	Project Wild/Wet and Learning Tree	none	Poudre School District email	teaching material and personal interest